

Inspiration

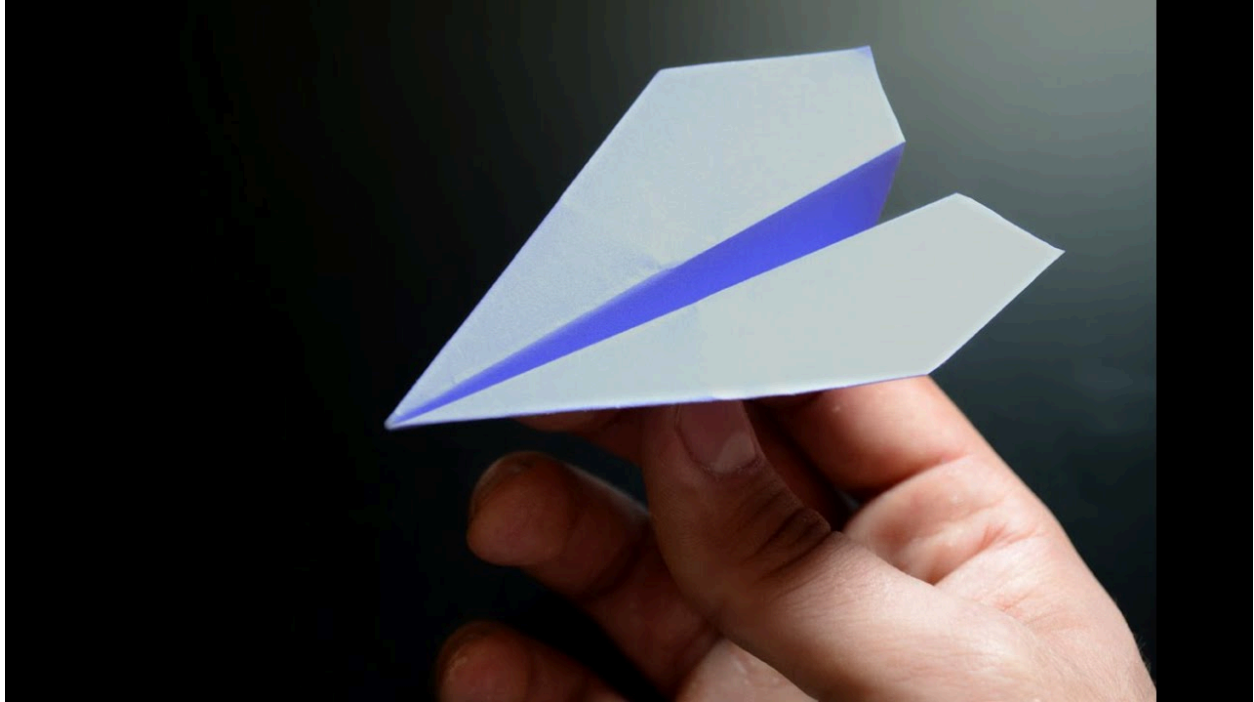

Flick 'em up

The idea of maneuvering origami pieces and forming a team was inspired by Flick 'em up. Flick 'em up is a board game for 2-10 players, players use their dexterity skills to flip discs representing cowboys and outlaws to complete various goals in the game. Some examples of goals include robbing banks, freeing prisons, etc. The idea of a team and implementing dexterity skills was inspired by Flick 'em up. It was an inspiration for the core game loop and game mechanics.

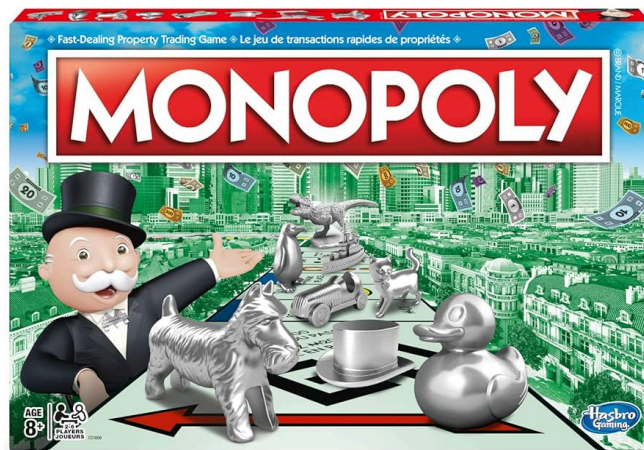

Origami

The use of origami in the game was inspired by its growing popularity and a desire to introduce crafty elements into the game. Moreover, origami has the ability to unfold an individuals' creative talent, so in order to have a creative side to the game, we decided to use origami.

Monopoly

Monopoly is a board game where players buy, sell, and trade properties with the object to have the maximum amount of wealth at the end. The addition of action cards in celestial conquerors was inspired by monopoly.
